

General Orders for the Civil War soldier on duty

1. I am required to take charge of this post -and all public property in 'view.
2. I am to salute all officers passing, according to rank.
3. I am to give the alarm in case of fire, or the approach of an enemy, or any disturbance whatsoever.
4. I am to report all violations of the Articles of War, Regulations of the Army, or camp or garrison orders.
5. At night, I am to challenge all persons approaching my post, and to allow no one to pass without the countersign until they are examined by an officer or non-commissioned officer of the guard.

Special Orders for the Civil War soldier

"My special orders are" (here state them as they are given, as when in charge of commissary or quartermaster's stores) " to take charge of all these stores, and to allow no one to interfere with or take them away, except by direction of the quartermaster or commissary sergeant, or the quartermaster or commissary himself."